Self-reflection Makes Me Become Better

We teenagers should always reflect on the past because self-reflection makes us become better. Through self-reflection, I can find my problems, and strive to do it perfectly the next time. Looking back on my study, I can check my progress.

I like reading, through reading not only enrich knowledge, but also open my eyes. If you want to develop a good habit of reading, you must stick to the good habit of reading, and set aside (留出) time for reading to improve your interest in reading. However, I have some weaknesses. Sometimes read too quickly and lack (缺少) deep thinking to understand the author's intentions. In the future I will learn reading skills and get rid of this bad habit.

So let's do some serious self-reflection together to make us better ourselves.

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am writing to apply for a weekend student helper at the English Study Center.

As a middle school student with excellent grades in English, I am sure of my ability to help primary school students.

I'm talented in talking with children and I'm good with children for I'm outgoing. Also, I'm ready to help others learn and grow. So I believe I'm fit for this role.

Thank you for accepting me as a team member. I look forward to the chance to be part of the English Study Center team.

Yours,
Li Hua

My Effective Learning Methods

Our school carried out a survey among 1,200 students on the topic of "My Effective Learning Methods". Here are the results.

68% of the students find making study plans the most helpful while 45% think learning by doing group work seems to be the most effective. 36% believe managing time wisely is useful.

As for me, I prefer to learn by working with a group. I used to be a shy person. As a result, I was afraid to speak in front of my classmates and I made few friends. Things changed since I began to learn by working with a group. I joined an English group and made many friends there. We always encouraged and helped each other. With their support, I became outgoing and confident.

As the saying goes, two heads are better than one. Learning by working with a group works well not only in improving my English but also in making me more confident.

My Healing Moment

Last week, I felt very stressed out because of exams and homework. I was mentally drained and couldn't focus. One afternoon, I decided to take a break and went for a walk in the park. The fresh air and green trees made me feel peaceful. I sat on a bench and listened to the birds singing. Suddenly, a small dog ran up to me, wagging its tail happily. It jumped up and down, and I couldn't help but smile. The dog's owner came over, and we started talking. She told me funny stories about her pet, and we laughed together. That moment made me forget all my worries. I felt hopeful and energetic again. It was truly a healing moment for me.
